

Hall Internet Marketing Nominated for 2013 Governor's Award for Business Excellence

February 20, 2013

Portland, Maine - Hall Internet Marketing has been nominated for the Governor's Award for Business Excellence (GABE), an award recognizing Maine businesses that excel in service excellence while showing a steadfast commitment to employees, customers and the community.

Hall is the largest 100% interactive marketing agency in Maine and one of just a handful of technology enabled agencies in New England. As organizer of Social Media Breakfast Maine and The Pub Hub Monthly Speaker Series, and as a founding member of the Casco Bay Technology Hub, Hall shows a strong commitment to Maine's local business and budding technology community. The company invests heavily in these business development events through the donation of money and staff time. As a growing Maine technology company that competes nationally with agencies in Boston, New York and California, Hall is dedicated to supporting local technology, innovation, start-ups, and overall business growth in Maine.

The Governor's Award for Business Excellence was created in 1991 and is presented to for-profit companies that have been in business in Maine for at least five years. A committee, which consists of employees of former winners, reviews the applications and makes their recommendations to the Governor. An event recognizing the winners will be held in the spring.
